Crest-Hi

BOOK OF THE YEAR

EDITED BY

THE STUDENTS OF CORFU HIGH

PUBLISHED BY

WM. J. KELLER CO.
BUFFALO, NEW YORK

THE title of our yearbook, "Crest-Hi," was chosen because Corfu is derived from Corcyra, the Greek name which means "high place" or "the crest."

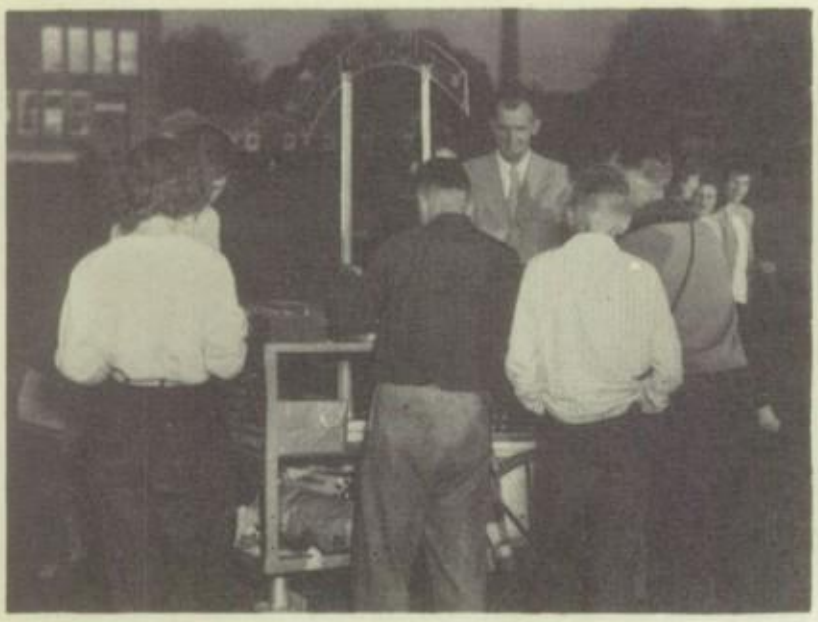
''FOR EVERYTHING THERE IS A SEASON, AND A TIME FOR EVERY PURPOSE UNDER HEAVEN....

Foreword

WE, the Senior class of 1950, do hereby dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Lamb, our English instructor, in grateful appreciation for his unfailing cooperation and constant help in guiding us on our way.

...A TIME FOR RECOGNITION

Dedication



Autumn

*I*N the fall when the doors of our school swing wide once more, we find a smoothly functioning administration working for the best interests of pupils and public alike. . .Following the example set by our elders, class officers are elected, and suddenly we find that we, too, are old enough to vote. . .To attain the goal of perfection, a yearbook staff should be chosen at the dawn of the school year. . .

The Freshmen and Sophomores make their first mark on the pages of this year's school history with their annual square dance. . . The Future Farmers of America earn the gratitude of the student body by feeding the "inner man" at football games. . . Our Library Club organizes each year with a single purpose---to maintain an efficient library. . . Football--the sport of men--with all the fanfare our cheerleading squad and football band can muster. . . Our soccer teams prove that girls can take it on the chin, too, or should we say shin?. . . The Girls' Athletic Association and the Leadership Corps are doing excellent work in the physical education department. . . Ah, autumn. . . Can you smell the burning leaves?

Winter

"WHERE is the laughter that shook the rafter? Where is the rafter, by the way?"--appropriately describes our Senior play. . . Under the able guidance of our several teachers the English department proceeds to give us a proper appreciation of our mother tongue. . . The art department deserves a medal for its work in brightening up bulletin boards, show cases, and other gloomy corners. . . The mixed choir reminds one of fine coffee, a perfect blend. . .

This dance band may never play at the Waldorf, but for sweet music it can't be beat. . . We hope the government will never bring an anti-monopoly suit against the brain-trust contained in our mathematics and science departments. . . Our commercial department puts the "busy" in business. . . From the young hopefuls on the Junior High squad through the J-V and Varsity teams, basketball is king in winter, and the cheerleaders make a fine bevy of princesses to crown the sport. . . "Ah, Wind, if Winter comes, can Spring be far behind?"

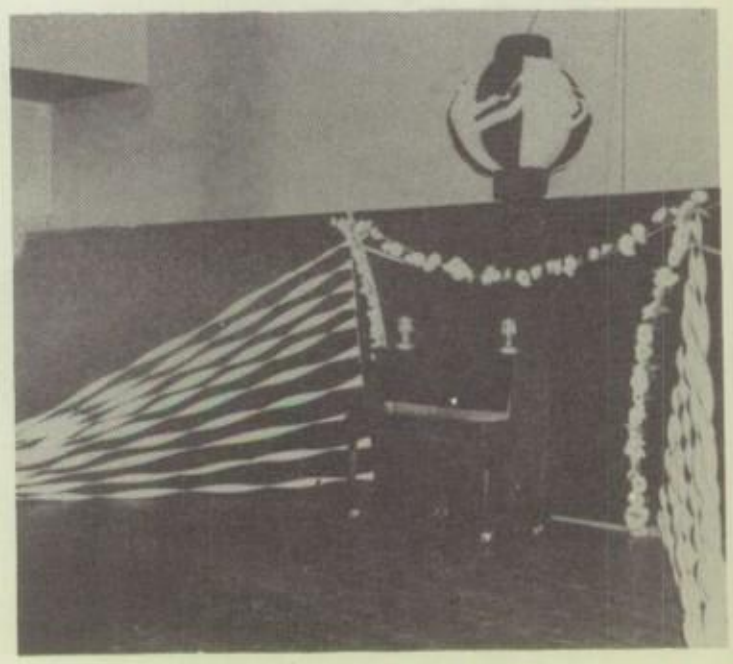
Spring

'TIS Spring. . . The brass and reed quartets have shown us that quality does not come from mere quantity. . . When the girls' choir sings, it combines glamour with the glee from Glee Club . . . A succession of sounds in rhythmic, melodic, and harmonic order--that's our band!. . . Time for state and county music festivals--are we ready?. . . Do the desks need refinishing? Is your window shade broken? Don't despair. The industrial arts classes can fix anything. . . The spring carnival of the Future Homemakers is becoming a yearly event, anticipated by all. . .



History--we learn it while we make it . . . The Junior class performs a great service for the student body with the publishing of that storehouse of news, wisdom, wit, and what-not--"Corfu-topia". . . One of the highlights of the spring social season is the annual Junior Prom. . . The Class of '50 will long be remembered as a record breaker. At the fall kick-off they astounded everybody by selling over twenty-one hundred dollars worth of magazines. Entering the winter, they produced a Senior play that was judged one of the funniest in years. In the spring they were still dominating the scene with their Variety Show and Senior Ball. All these culuminating in the goal of every student--graduation. Spring, then, is the season that sort of belongs to the Seniors.
